MCEDC Recognized by the Ohio Economic Development Association (OEDA) for Workforce Development

Medina, OH. The Medina County Economic Development Corporation (MCEDC) was recognized for its Workforce Program by the Ohio Economic Development Association (OEDA) at its 2018 Annual Excellence Awards.

MCEDC Executive Director Bethany Dentler and Economic Developer Kathy Breitenbucher received a certificate of recognition for being a finalist in the “Excellence in Workforce Development” category during the OEDA’s Annual Summit held in October in Columbus.

The workforce programs overseen by MCEDC include coordination of Made in Medina County Days, hosting the Employer Resources Expo, serving as the Business Advisory Council for multiple school districts, and organizing Job Opportunity Tours.

The Ohio Economic Development Association is a professional organization for economic developers. Their mission is to increase economic prosperity in the State of Ohio by working together with state, regional, and local development partners to advance Ohio’s economy.

The Medina County Economic Development Corporation serves to attract new businesses into the county, retain what is here and help business grow. MCEDC provides connections to resources, people, services, and capital for companies and represent business needs in business advocacy issues.
